Three assailants were captured on camera assaulting a young boy and shouting at him.

A video circulating on Facebook shows a young boy assaulted by three boys at a staircase landing.

The one-and-a-half minute long video first shows the assailants confronting the victim. One of the bullies, who was clad in a black T-shirt, can be seen smiling at the camera before punching the victim in his stomach and slapping his face.

The same teenager proceeded to headlock the boy and pulled him to the wall.

Another attacker wearing a white T-shirt then kicked the boy as he sat on the floor.

The victim was shouted at by the bullies throughout the ordeal.

One minute into the video, the assailant wearing a white T-shirt is seen hitting the boy on his arm and kicking him multiple times.

The boy was then headlocked once more by the attacker in black at the end of the video.

It is unclear where the incident took place and what happened after the assault, although comments on the Facebook video seem to indicate that this occurred in Malaysia.
